Leading with Data & Insights

Plan Analysis

MARKET EVALUATION

In-depth analysis of regional medical trends, program offerings, and funding models to drive informed decision-making and maximize value.

COST STRUCTURE

We analyze premiums, contributions, and overall costs to strike the perfect balance between coverage and affordability for your organization.

EMPLOYEE SATISFACTION & ENGAGEMENT

Gather insights into workforce preferences to create a tailored benefits package that aligns with employee needs and enhances satisfaction.

CLAIMS DATA & UTILIZATION

Reviewing claim history and utilization patterns to identify trends, find savings opportunities and reduce future risk.

Organizational Alignment

Our team can build a benefits program to optimize for cost, quality, value, or flexibility; however, before we know what to build, we need a consensus on the strategy. A program built for capital conservation looks and feels different from a program built for perceived quality.

Balancing Your Capital & Talent Strategy

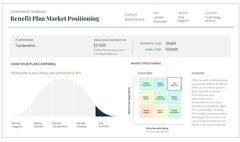

Our Process

1. Initial Consultation and Discovery
   Understanding our client's capital allocation, workforce structure, and long-term business goals.
2. Talent Assessment
   Analyze talent needs, including workforce demographics, recruitment, retention, and growth projections.
3. Capital Allocation Review
   Evaluate how the organization's financial resources are distributed, focusing on areas that impact talent acquisition, retention, and development.

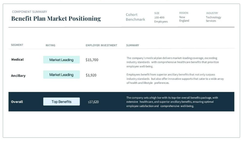

Benchmarking Data

Benefits benchmarking offers key insights by comparing your program to industry peers, helping to identify gaps and opportunities for savings. CCIG uses this data to optimize benefits and ensure your program is competitive and aligned with industry standards.

Getting the Most Out of Your Benefits Program

Healthcare Plan Funding Spectrum

OPTIMIZING FOR

Flexibility ▪ Quality ▪ Value ▪ Cost

Fully Insured Non-Participating

Aka Guaranteed Cost/Traditional Funding

"Winner take all" contract

Employer pays monthly premiums

Carrier pays claims and assumes risk

Level Funded

Acts like self-funded but has monthly costs pre-determined

Self-Funded + Stop-Loss Captive

Just like self-funded option but group captive allows employer to reap rewards of a good claim year

Insurer has 100% — Transfer of Risk — Employer has 100%

Fully Insured Participating

Aka Dividend Eligible or Shared Savings

Allows the employer to benefit from a good claims year via a dividend. In a bad year, any deficit would roll forward

Self-Funded with Stop-Loss

Can be with insurer or TPA. Stop loss can be carved in or out with a 3rd party

Employer only pays claims as they occur

Self-Insurance

No stop-loss insurance protection involved. Employer has all risk

Plan Performance Analytics

Plan performance analytics provide valuable insights every renewal cycle, helping to assess the effectiveness of your benefits program. By analyzing costs, claims, and employee utilization, CCIG identifies trends and opportunities to optimize your strategy. This data-driven approach ensures your benefits remain cost-effective, competitive, and aligned with your organization's goals.

Curious Enough To Care: Solving High Claims Costs

INDUSTRY: Construction, Infrastructure, & Excavation
EMPLOYEES: 250

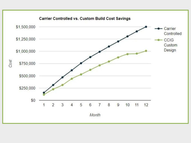

THE CHALLENGE

A Denver-Area company with 180 enrolled employees struggled with two cases of End Stage Renal Disease (ESRD). Therefore, dialysis was an ongoing issue and brought very high claim costs of $500,000 annually. Their Carrier Controlled plan left them exposed to high costs and poor flexibility to minimize future risks.

THE SOLUTION

CCIG educated the client on a different path. We aligned the client with the right carrier partners, cost containment strategies and were able to negotiate stronger pricing for dialysis through a "carve-out" amending the Plan Document language. The client has realized cost reductions over $250,000 for the pricing of each dialysis treatment, saving $580,000+ in the first year.
